Making his debut performance, "Torrid Tom" (better known as Tom Umphrey,) will climax the entertainment at the first Shelton State reunion sponsored by the Shelton State Alumni Association. In what may also be his last performance of the season, the college vice president will highlight an evening of entertainment which will feature former Shelton students and current faculty members.

"Beautiful Benny" (better known as Benny Ford) will also perform a number from the Shelton production of 1986, Bye Bye Birdie. Also appearing with Ford in this number is former student Dawn Jones.

Another number entitled "Softball Queen Trailer Park Tragedy" will feature Shelton instructors Gene Plott, Ted Huddleston, Rick Dice and David Sandy.

Not to be upstaged, the Buccarrettes under the leadership of Buccaneer baseball coach Bobby Sprowl will entertain the audience. Performing with Coach Sprowl is the chorus of Coach James Tubb, Mark Hikes, Craig Roy, Jon Hicks, Kevin Mings, Lee Hall, Pat Woods, and Joe Bogan.

Former students Dewin Tibbs, Tommy Vaughn and Dan Stallings will perform several numbers from the Fantasticks which was produced by Shelton's music department in 1982.

Former voice student Debbie Jackson will sing "O Mio Bambin Caro" and Jackie Foster will sing "Spanish Rose" from last year's production of Bye Bye Birdie.

Syble Coats, chairman of the music department, Tom Umphrey, and Betty Brown are in charge of the entertainment.

The reunion will be Saturday, January 24, beginning with dinner at 6 p.m. and will be held in the junior college auditorium. Tickets are $3.00 per person or $5.00 a couple. Co-chairman for the event are alumni members Danna Northam and Sandra Anderson. Peggy Rowe and Humphrey Lee are in charge of the food.

To purchase tickets, contact Alumni advisors Sharon Deck, Janet Gregory or Lucy Kubiszyn.

EARLY REGISTRATION FOR SPRING QUARTER IS SCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 18-20. MARK THESE DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR IN ORDER TO BE ASSURED OF THE CLASSES AND SCHEDULE YOU WANT.
